

Ewes' party, fashion show to aid Lambs

Tasia Kavvadias

Chicago Tribune (1963-Current file); Dec 26, 1984;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers Chicago Tribune (1849 - 1987)

pg. E7

Ewes' party, fashion show to aid Lambs

By Tasia Kavvadias

The Lambs Farm in Libertyville is receiving a bit of extra help these days. The Ewes of Lake Forest and Lake Bluff, the farm's new auxillary, will sponsor a cocktail party and fashion show from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Feb. 8 in the Lake Forest Sports Shop, 265 Market Square, Lake Forest. Proceeds will go to the residential facility for mentally handicapped adults. The fashion show will feature the spring and fall collections of Chicago designer Mark Helster, winner of the 1984 Gold Coast Fashion Award. Tickets, $20, may be purchased at the door. For reservations call 234-0549.

Despite winter's cold weather, things may get a little steamy when the Chicago Public Library Cultural Center, 78 E. Washington St., offers "Some Like It Hot," a month-long series of free performances, presentations and films from Jan. 3 through Jan. 30. Three of Marilyn Monroe's films, including "Some Like It Hot," will be shown. The series also will feature Caribbean and calypso music, native dances from Guatemala and Africa and travelogue films. Wiegboldt's will present a showing of resort and swim wear at 12:15 p.m. Jan. 29. A calendar of these events is available in the Cultural Center, or call 346-3278 for weekly updated listings.

Places to be

Who can better host the Super Bowl party for 1985 than the Chicago Honey Bears? The cheerleaders will perform during halftime on Jan. 20 in the Chicago Room of McCormick Place, 23d Street and Lake Shore Drive. The $100 a person ticket price includes watching the game on a large movie screen, cocktails and buffet dinner. Pregame highlights of previous Super Bowls and "football follies" also will be shown. Proceeds will benefit the Little City Foundation. For reservations call 282-2207.

Twenty-four debutantes will bow in the Presentation Ball at 8 p.m. Friday in the Grand Ballroom of the Palmer House. The young women will be presented to Bishop Timothy J. Lyne at the annual dinner-dance benefiting Catholic philanthropies. Lester Lanin and his orchestra will provide dance music at the cotillion, sponsored by the Illinois Club for Catholic Women.

Pamela Lenane is chairman.

Fashion calendar

Wednesday: Furs from the Alper Richman salon will be shown from 4 to 5 p.m. in the Drake Hotel's Palm Court. Refreshments will be available. Call 787-2200.

Thursday: A Chanel makeup artist will be available for personal consultations in I. Magnin's Chicago store. For an appointment call 751-0500. Through Monday.

...Fashions from Saint Laurent Rive Gauche of Oak Brook will be modeled from 4 to 5 p.m. in the Drake Hotel's Palm Court. For reservations call 787-2200.

Saturday: Clients will be treated to candlelight and champagne from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Vidal Sassoon Salon, Water Tower Place. Call 751-2216. . . . Revillon furs will be modeled from noon to 3 p.m. in Saks Fifth Avenue's Oakbrook Center store. Also Sunday.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.